Analysis of Photographs of Immigrant Life

Photograph #1

1. Examine the photograph
   a. Are there people in the photo? Describe them:

   b. What is the setting/location of the photo? Describe it.

   c. What is the action taking place? Describe it.

2. What do you think this is this a picture of? How do you know?

3. Name three things you can learn about the life of immigrants at the turn of the century from this photograph.

4. Give the photograph a title: ___________________________________________________________
Photograph #2

1. Examine the photograph
   a. Are there people in the photo? Describe them:

   b. What is the setting/location of the photo? Describe it.

   c. What is the action taking place? Describe it.

2. What do you think this is this a picture of? How do you know?

3. Name three things you can learn about the life of immigrants at the turn of the century from this photograph.

4. Give the photograph a title: ____________________________________________
Photograph #3

1. Examine the photograph
   a. Are there people in the photo? Describe them:

   b. What is the setting/location of the photo? Describe it.

   c. What is the action taking place? Describe it.

2. What do you think this is this a picture of? How do you know?

3. Name three things you can learn about the life of immigrants at the turn of the century from this photograph.

4. Give the photograph a title: ________________________________________________
Photograph #4

1. Examine the photograph
   a. Are there people in the photo? Describe them:

   b. What is the setting/location of the photo? Describe it.

   c. What is the action taking place? Describe it.

2. What do you think this is this a picture of? How do you know?

3. Name three things you can learn about the life of immigrants at the turn of the century from this photograph.

4. Give the photograph a title:

   ________________________________
1. Examine the photograph
   a. Are there people in the photo? Describe them:

   b. What is the setting/location of the photo? Describe it.

   c. What is the action taking place? Describe it.

2. What do you think this is this a picture of? How do you know?

3. Name three things you can learn about the life of immigrants at the turn of the century from this photograph.

4. Give the photograph a title: ____________________________________________
Photograph #6

1. Examine the photograph
   a. Are there people in the photo? Describe them:

   b. What is the setting/location of the photo? Describe it.

   c. What is the action taking place? Describe it.

2. What do you think this is this a picture of? How do you know?

3. Name three things you can learn about the life of immigrants at the turn of the century from this photograph.

4. Give the photograph a title: ____________________________________________